

Article Overview

Affordable distribution box covers are available in plastic, ABS, and metal, with prices starting as low as $0.26 per piece for small project boxes.

Online Options for Budget Covers

Plastic and ABS Covers: Lightweight and cost-effective, these covers are ideal for indoor and outdoor use. On AliExpress, small ABS plastic project boxes start at $0.26 per piece, while waterproof ABS enclosures range from $1 to $6 depending on size and features . Lowes and Walmart also offer plastic electrical box covers starting around $1-$5 for standard sizes . Transparent Covers: For monitoring or temporary protection, clear plastic covers are available. SmartGuard offers puncture-resistant, flame-retardant PVC covers suitable for temporary use on breaker boxes and distribution panels . Walmart lists transparent waterproof covers starting at $6.81 for outdoor distribution boxes . Decorative and Functional Covers: Amazon provides decorative covers for indoor panels, ranging from $5 to $25, which can hide distribution boxes while maintaining accessibility . These include wall-mounted paintings or solid-color panels. Bulk and Industrial Options: Alibaba and other suppliers offer bulk purchases for industrial or residential use. Prices for plastic distribution board covers can be as low as $0.43-$0.47 per piece for 3-16 way ABS plastic boards, with minimum order quantities of 10 pieces . Larger waterproof or IP65-rated covers range from $2.70 to $32 depending on size and protection level .

Tips for Choosing Cheap Covers

- o Material: Plastic or ABS is cheapest; metal covers are more durable but costlier.
- o Size and Compatibility: Match the cover to your distribution box dimensions (1-gang, 2-gang, multi-way panels).
- o Indoor vs Outdoor: Ensure outdoor covers are waterproof (IP54-IP67) to protect against rain and dust.
- o Bulk Purchase: Buying in packs or from wholesale suppliers can significantly reduce per-unit cost.
- o Temporary vs Permanent: Temporary PVC or clear covers are cheaper and suitable for job sites, while permanent ABS or metal covers provide long-term protection. By comparing options across Amazon, AliExpress, Walmart, Lowe's, and Alibaba, you can find cheap, functional, and sometimes decorative distribution box covers starting from under $1 for small enclosures to $10-$20 for larger waterproof boxes .
