With a 30,000m<sup>2</sup> automated manufacturing facility and over 100 skilled employees, they provide OEM and ODM services for customized solutions. Tianhong serves global industries including power generation, commercial buildings, and infrastructure projects, ensuring fast delivery and stable quality . 3. APEXTRAY (Wuxi, Jiangsu) APEXTRAY produces solid bottom, ladder, perforated, wire mesh, fiberglass, and aluminum cable trays. Established in 1993, they have a strong international presence, serving clients in over 26 countries. Their focus on quality, environmental standards, and innovation makes them a reliable choice for both domestic and international projects .

Considerations for Jiexiu Projects

- o Material Selection: Choose manufacturers offering materials suitable for your environment, such as stainless steel for corrosion resistance or fiberglass for chemical plants.
- o Customization: Look for companies providing OEM/ODM services to meet specific project dimensions and load requirements.
- o Delivery and Support: Ensure the manufacturer can ship to Jiexiu efficiently and provide technical support for installation.
- o Compliance and Standards: Verify that products meet relevant safety and industrial standards for electrical installations. These manufacturers are well-established, capable of supplying high-quality cable trays, and can support projects in Jiexiu with both standard and customized solutions .
