Considerations When Choosing a Supplier

- o Material and durability: Steel, galvanized steel, or aluminum trays for long-term use.
- o Type of tray: Ladder, perforated, or mesh trays depending on cable load and ventilation needs.
- o Local availability: Suppliers with storage in Malta ensure faster delivery and support.
- o Project scale: Some suppliers cater to large industrial projects, while others focus on smaller commercial or residential installations. By considering these suppliers and factors, you can select a reliable manufacturer or distributor of cable trays in Malta that meets your project requirements.
